I write this letter to support Glenn Lancaster for Wilsonville mayor. What happens when a city starts growing too fast? We don't have to wonder – we've been watching it with our own eyes. It is harder to get around the city. Housing costs have skyrocketed. It makes me sad. Without change, Wilsonville will become a sprawling mess with none of the character of our past.

I recently saw Glenn Lancaster spell out his vision for Wilsonville's future at one of his mayoral campaign events. Glenn used the phrase "slow, smart growth" to describe what he has in mind for this city moving forward. Glenn Lancaster, as an engineer, has the right mindset to attack this problem and realize slow and smart growth for a better future. Vote for Glenn Lancaster.
